Regarding Account Verification and Refund Request 4087273116

Dear Verification Office,

Thank you for your response.

Regarding your request for identity verification, I am writing to inform you that I am currently unable to access my account to complete the upload process. Furthermore, due to privacy and security concerns, I am unable to provide a copy of my government-issued identification.

As I do not wish to proceed with the verification process, I would like to formally request that you cancel the pending order associated with this transaction immediately. Please process a full refund to my original payment method as soon as possible.

I trust that you can resolve this matter without the need for further identity documentation, as I am simply requesting a cancellation of a service that I have not been able to utilize.

I look forward to receiving confirmation of the cancellation and the refund.

Sincerely,

David almasian

Subject: Follow-up: Missing Refund Receipt - Case ID: GPTR-374387

Dear Verification Team,

Thank you for your response.

Regarding the refund for order 4087273116, I would like to clarify that I have thoroughly checked my inbox, as well as my spam and junk folders, and I have not received any receipt or transaction confirmation email.

As this refund involves a financial transaction, it is essential that I receive proof of the refund or a transaction reference number to track the reimbursement with my financial institution. If the refund has indeed been processed, you should be able to provide me with a transaction ID or a confirmation number.

If you are unable to provide this documentation, could you please kindly forward my request to the Billing Department, or provide me with a direct email address for that department so I may resolve this matter directly with them?

I appreciate your prompt attention to this matter and look forward to receiving the necessary confirmation.

Sincerely,

David Almasian

Subject: FINAL NOTICE: Refund Receipt Required - Case ID: GPTR-374387 - Order 4087273116

To the Verification Office,

I am writing this as a final notice. I have been informed by your office that a refund for order #4087273116 has been processed, yet I have received no official receipt, no transaction ID, and no confirmation of this refund.

Furthermore, please be advised that I have repeatedly attempted to contact your support and billing teams through the official portal (<https://www.godaddy.com/en/help/contact-us>). However, the system failed to connect me to an agent or experienced technical issues, leaving me with absolutely no way to resolve this through live chat. Because of your broken support system and my locked account, I am forced to send this formal warning via email.

Since I am locked out of my account, I cannot verify the status myself. Your team's failure to provide a simple transaction reference number is unacceptable.

Please be advised:

If I do not receive a valid refund confirmation or a transaction receipt/ID from your Billing Department within the next 48 hours, I will have no choice but to initiate a Chargeback Dispute through my financial institution. I will provide my bank with the full history of this correspondence—including the technical failure of your chat system—as evidence that GoDaddy has failed to provide the purchased service, failed to provide verification of the refund, and locked me out of my account.

I am giving you this final opportunity to resolve this matter professionally and provide the proof of refund that I am legally entitled to.

Sincerely,

David Almasian
